DR. TUTT'S

Its properties are Demulcont, Nutritivo, Balsamic, Soothing and Healing. Combining all these qualities, it is the most effective LUNG BALSAM ever othered to sufferers from pulmopary diseases.

Dr. J. F. HAY WOOD, of New York, voluntarily inderess it. Read what he says:
New York, Sept. 19, 1871. New York, Sept. 19, 1871.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir—During this year I treated nine numbed cases of lung diseases. In the lower words of the city the cases were of a very severe type. It was there my attention was called to Tuty's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power. During a practice of twenty years I have never known a real-cine to act as prometry and with such hance. eine to act as premptly and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most violen his of coughing, and invariably cured the disease in a few days. I chearfully endorse it as the best long medicine I ever used.

J. FRANCIS HAY WOOD, M.D. A NEWSPAPER PUBLISHER WRITES

Office Evening News, Augusta, Ga.

Dr. Tutt: Dear Sir- My little son was attacked with uncumonia last winter, which left him with a violent cough that lasted till within a month since, for the cure of which I am indebted to your valuable Expectorant. I had tried most everything recommended, but none did any good until I used your Expectorant, one with many thanks, I am yours truly,
JOHN M. WEIGLE.

The C. & Q. Canal Suit.

The Chesspeake and Ohio Canal Company on Mord y filed in the U. S. Circuit Court of Maryland the answer of the company to the bill of complaint filed by D. K. Stewari, of Encland, and others, asking that the affairs of the company be placed in the hands of a recover, to be appointed by the court.

The answer sets forth that if complainant is the bona fide owner of $150 000 worth of bonds he required them very shortly before the filing d the bil of empleint; that they were assigned by Juo. Stewart, of Virginia, to complainant for the express 1 uspose of the institution of the suit. It is admitted that before 1841 many mithous of dellars had been expended upon the catal in constructing it to a point fifty miles east of Comberland, at which time it was unable to earn ordinary expenses and was without sufficient credit to complete the work to Cumberland. The complainants admit the State of Maryland cannot be made a party to the suit, but seek to get rid of the difficulty of the court's sking jurisdiction by alleging that she has no immediate and direct interest in the matter of the soit. They leave the court almest wholly uninformed as to the interest which the State of Mariland has in the canal. B, the act of 1834 the State provides for a lean from besself to the espal company of $2,000,000. which with account interest new amounts to 6,855 000, which is uspaid. The payment of this loan, as provided by the . c , was to be socured by morigage on the entire properly until a sufficient sinking fund should be raised to pay it. To 1875 the State of Maryland loaned respondents $2,000,000 mere, which shows conlusively her interest. The next assistance afforded was a subscription of $3,000,000 to the capital stock, the State receiving 30 000 shares. The seventh section of the act of 1835 provided the respondents should guarantee 6 per cent. rer annum on $3,000,000, furnished by the Sate, which was accepted and obligations executed September 26, 1836. This being insufficient to complete the canal, upon appliestion to the State an act was passed in 1838 for further subscription of $1,375,000 to the capital stock of the company. Another act was passed in 1838 for the substitution of 5 per cent. bonds in lieu of those provided for by the act of 1838, chapter 396. The amount of subscriptions authorized was paid to respondents by the State and there is now $6 143 336 due to the 000,000 of the $8,226,593 composing the capital. Having thus set forth the interest in and lions upon property, &c., held by the State of Mary land the respondents insist that the State is a accessary party to any proceedings. The management of the affairs should not be taken out of the hands of the respondents. It is expressly provided in the mortgage under which the bonds which complainants claim to fold were issued that the corre control and management of the canal should remain in the hands of respondent unless the net revenues should. by negligence on the part of the company, be to sufficient to pay interest on bonds, &c. It is, therefore, indisputable, except in one contingerey, that under the terms of the mortgage the control and management of the caust were to be left to the company. It is equally judis-pensable that the State of Maryland, by virtue I ber liens aron all the property, has a vital interest in the determination of the question whether the management shall remain with those whom she now, by victue of her ownership of the majority of the stock, has the right to select or be intrusted to those in whose an pointment she will have no hand.

to the capital stock of the respondents by the State, she also paid for $625,000 of stock in the ordinary way and is therefore the holder of $5.4

By the previsions of the montgage executed ander the act of Assembly of 1844, chapter 281, it is agreed between the parties that so long as the event company shall comply with their. agreement by paying all interest upon bonds as they felt due and shall provide an adequate inking fund, &c., for the final redemption of the bands that the casal company shall retain the inscarcement of the canal and collect all revenues, &c. If they fail to comply with these emditions from may cause except deficiency of reserve arising from failure of business, As, the trusters may demand and receive personed of the const. The respondents deny GRORGE'S CREEK CUMBER! AND, AND char the traders, with full knowledge of the mesonangement and illegal application of the reviews of the caust by respondents, had been WHARP & YARD FOOT OF WOLFE ST., requested and refused to take possession and assume the management of the canal, and claim that complainant has no right to come into court and ask that the management be committed to the hands of a receiver, to be appointed by the court. If the particular persons now filling the position of trustees refuse to discharge their duties, the relief to be sought by complainant would be either that the trustees be required to discharge their duties or be dis placed and others appointed. They also say it is unirge that the facts as to the mismagement and illegal perversion of revenues of the canal were known to trustees as alleged in the bill, and they further deny that the trust-ees ever failed to discharge their duties. If the receivership prayed for should be granted, the entire management would be taken out of the hands of the respondents and as umed by the court. Neither the cot of 1844 chapter 281, nor mortgage executed thereunder gives any lien to the holders of the bonds issued thereunder upon the corpus of the capal. Nor does either of them authorize in any event, the sale of the canal to pay the bonds. These allegations the respondents claim to be utterly groundless and fals; as to the pass age of an act in 1878 for the purpose of repudi atiog or violating their duty to the bondholders under the act of 1814. The document, which is a lengthy one, denies all the charges of mismanagement and illegal expenditures of revenucs. It minutely shows the whole busicess transactions during the course of its operations and claims no receiver should be appointed as prayed for by complainants. A lengthy answer was also filed by Arthur P. Gormao, president of best quality, and well screned. I will be pleased to upply my friends and customers at lowest mertal price. Delivered at houses, cars or boats, mortgage. After the fiting of the bill the company and Mess s James Sloan, jr., trustees under the mortgage. After the fiting of the bill the company and Mess s James Sloan, jr., and Lleyd Lowedes, jr., trustees under the price. of the company, and Messis James Sloan, jr., plainants asked the court, in view of the fact that there were questions of jurisdictions raised by the answer, to give them time to examine the case.
